In Memoriam. ANDERSON. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, ELIZABETH E. ANDER-SON, who departed this life thirteen years ago today, March 11, 1896. · In the graveyard, softly sleeping,

Where the flowers gently wave. Lies the one I loved so dearly, The one I could not save. BY HER LOVING SON, IRVEY. CONFER. In loving remembrance of my devoted son, FRANCIS D. CONFER, who entered into rest eight years ago yesterday, March 10, Church Men's Club Members Argue Rarewell, dear son, a sad farewell; The loss to me no tongue can tell. 'Tis sad indeed to part from thee. Earthly things have lost their brightness; Joys once cherished now have gone, and my heart has lost its lightness. Oh, to see those loving eyes languish And the loving heart grow cold.

It is sad indeed to part from thee. But God's strong arms support me. And when on earth I breathe no mor I will meet you on that beavenly shore, to part BY HIS DEVOTED PARENTS AND SISTER

GRANEY. In sad, loving memory of my beloved sister, MARY E. GRANEY, who died one year ago today, March 11, 1908. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let per-petual light shine upon her. BY HER SISTER AGNES.

PADGETT. In memory of WILMER L. PADG-ETT, who died three years ago today, March 11, 1906. A little lock of golden hair
Speaks to our hearts of one who died;
A blue-eyed boy as sweet and fair
As e'er invoked a parent's pride.

We saw the shadows close about The brightest ray that ever shone; We saw the coffin lid shut out The dearest idol we've ever known. BY HIS PARENTS. This lovely youth, cut off so soon, Shall rise and live beyond the tomb.

BY HIS SISTERS SHAW. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, FRANCES SHAW, who departed this life three years ago today, March 11,

BY MER CHILDREN, ABBIE AND AUGUSTUS TIBBS. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, JAMES E. TIBBS, who departed this life one year ago today, March 11, 1908.

We miss thee from home, dear husband, We miss thee from thy place; A shadow o'er our lives is cast.

We miss the sunshine of your face;
We miss thy kind and willing hand. Thy fond and earnest care BY HIS DEVOTED WIFE, MINNIE TIBES

RIGHT. In loving remembrance of my dear mother, CATHARINE WRIGHT, who died six years ago today, March 11, 1903. Have you a mother? Love her well While she is spared to earth; Wait not till death shall call her hence
